

Benefits of staying active and healthy

Getting healthy and active in older adulthood has many benefits. It can help you:

- stay independent
- improve balance and prevent falls
- keep your bones and muscles strong
- manage or lower your risk of chronic diseases like heart disease and diabetes
- maintain your energy levels and concentration
- improve your mood and sense of wellbeing.

Find an exercise program

Follow these four easy steps:

- 1 Visit www.activeandhealthy.nsw.gov.au
- 2 Click on 'Find an exercise program'
- 3 Type in your location (town/suburb) and how far you can travel
- 4 Click 'Search programs' to browse

You can filter programs by type of activity or to find free classes or online programs.
